A Beautiful Tribute.
A pretty little life drama was that of Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. G. Barry—friends paying tribute of love and friendship for the dear mother of Mrs. Barry, whose birthday numbered the eighty-second. Mrs. Clara H. Stedman, though old in years, is still young in heart, and though this tribute by neighbors and friends was a complete surprise to her, she was equal to the occasion. Each friend brought a gift of love, and beautiful words. Mrs. Stedman was a response for all. After while the folding doors were opened to the dining room, all in flowers for the occasion, and an elegant repast served. The afternoon was joyfully kept, the honoree giving beautiful piano selections of "ye olden times." The following was the personnel of the party: Mesdames B. H. Gardner, H. R. Moore, F. B. Markle, P. H. Hughes, E. J. Ezell, T. W. Smith, H. L. Houseman, V. D. Wilson, W. M. McDonald, J. G. Barry, and the honoree, Mrs. Clara H. Stedman.

Social Club.
Mrs. Newell Kane entertained the Social Club Thursday afternoon with five tables of Rook. A happy afternoon was passed, ending with a lovely luncheon in two courses. Mrs. Hampson Gary of Tyler was an out-of-town guest.

Easter Lawn Party.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cook was a beautiful scene Thursday evening, the Misses Cook entertaining their friends with a lawn party. The lawn was arranged in pretty nooks, with art squares, chairs and pretty lawn tables; sofa pillows were carefully placed here and there, adding charm. Pink Easter eggs, with the program for the evening's fun, were given each guest. Progressive conversation with twelve subjects were written on the eggs. The third topic was an Easter egg hunt. This was delightful. Ben Hearne was the winner on the gentlemen's side, Miss Carrie Houseman of the ladies. Mr. Matt Davenport deserved consolation, finding no eggs. The eggs were beautifully colored, carrying out the color scheme, pink, green and yellow. The seventh topic was refreshments, and all were served an elegant repast. The twelfth topic was dancing on the porch, and it seemed this was the most delightful of all. It was a happy, joyous occasion.

Spring Park Pleasures.
Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holzheuser entertained Thursday afternoon a happy party in honor of Miss Gertrude Kersh, whose engagement to Mr. Jack Wilson of Saratoga, Texas, was announced. A delightful afternoon was passed in boating and fishing. Dinner was served at six o'clock in the dining room of the club house. Covers were laid for the host, hostess, honoree, and Misses Mary McCaffrey, Jessie Matthews, Carrie Mead, Jewel Moore, Mary Hassell, Mattie Kersh, Messrs. Jay Kersh, George Spangler and Dr. Austin. After dinner, which was elegantly served in five courses, the evening was passed in music, song and happy conversation.

U. D. C. Entertainment.
At the beautiful suburban home of Dr. and Mrs. I. P. Poyner the John H. Reagan Chapter, U. D. C., entertained yesterday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, a great many friends, Dr. and Mrs. Poyner are ideal entertainers, and assisted by such a coterie of Palestine women, the afternoon soon gave place to shades of night. The children's auxiliary was represented by sweet girls receiving the guests, giving flowers as favors. In the reception hall Mrs. Poyner was assisted in receiving by Mesdames L. J. Johnson, T. B. Slaughter, W. J. Crawford, Miss Kate Lacy and Miss Georgie Crawford. The colors of the U. D. C. were carried out in every detail; red and white carnations, grouped with ferns, were beautiful. Easter lilies were here and there. The studio had been arranged for the tea room, and here Mrs. John H. Reagan presided at the tea table, serving Russian tea and cake to all. Her chair was beautifully draped in red and white carnations. Also a seat of honor for Mrs. Anne Latimer was draped in flowers and colors. Judge Reagan's portrait, draped in the flag, tattered, reminded all of "the furled banner." His sword was also on the easel, and the corner was decidedly historic. A beautiful Easter lily in bloom was here, reminding all of new hopes and a resurrection of happy days. The dining room was a picture, the table in elegant hand-made lace cover, the centerpiece a mound of red and white carnations with blue violets, and in the center of this an Easter lily, suggesting that the past lies under the mound of red, white and blue, and the future hopes of the U. D. C. are for peace, love and joy, even as the pure white Easter lily. Red and white streamers of ribbons were arranged at the electric light, caught at the four corners of the table. An elegant luncheon was served, a salad course, followed by white and pink brick cream, pink and white mints. Mrs. Mollie Reagan Mobley was here and there, seeing that all had a lovely time, as indeed they did. Beautiful piano selections were enjoyed, old-time music and new, too. Some of the old veterans were present, and were an addition to the pretty occasion.

T. B. Club.
The T. B. Club was royally entertained by Miss Charlotte Davidson last Saturday afternoon. Forty-two was enjoyed, after which an elegant two-course luncheon was served. This is a club of happy school girls.

Mrs. Hampson Gary is home for Easter with her loved ones.

Miss Jettie Colley is home for Easter from St. Mary's College at Dallas.

TURKISH BATH OF ARIZONA

The Indian "sweat-house" is a form of Turkish bath much favored as a cure for various ills by the Indians of Arizona, New Mexico and other parts of the far west. When in use the house is covered with blankets and the bather sits on the leaves and twigs shown. The stones before him are made red-hot. The bath being closed, water is poured on the red-hot stones, so that steam arises in a blinding veil.

LIGHTHOUSES IN STEEPLES

Some time ago an account appeared of a church at Charleston, S. C., which has a lighthouse situated in its steeple. It was stated that it was the only one of its kind in the world. A vigilant and patriotic Danish reader, however, points out that his own country possesses a similar curiosity in the steeple of the church at Thuno, a small island in the Kattegat near Samsø. The government maintains the lighthouse and the minister is the official inspector.

A WEAK WOMAN AND HER STORY

In Floral, Ark., Lives a Lady Who Feels That Her Strength Was Restored by Cardui.

Floral, Ark.—"I must speak a good word for Cardui," writes Mrs. Viola Baker, of this place.
"About a month ago I was in very bad health. I was so weak and nervous that I was not able to do my housework.
"My husband bought me one bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic. I took it according to directions and now I am in good health.
"I think Cardui is a fine tonic for weak women."
And you are not the only lady who thinks so, Mrs. Baker.
Thousands, like you, have written to tell of the wonderful benefit Cardui has been to them.
Cardui contains no minerals, or other powerful drugs. It contains no glycerin or other mawkish-tasting ingredients.
It is just a pure, natural extract, of natural vegetable herbs, that have been found to regulate the womanly functions and strengthen the female system.
All druggists sell Cardui.
See yours about it.

"THE FACE WITHIN THE LILIES."

This wealth of Easter lilies, so stately and so white,
Is a sign that Lenten darkness has fled before the light,
And the cheery little maiden whom the flowers interlace
Adds a charm to the sweet symbol in the brightness of her face.

News of the Schools
By School Reporter

The students of the High School take this method of expressing their thanks for the aid which the Messrs. Hamilton have given them in the past and also have adopted a definite plan of issuing the most interesting and favorable news every week in the column which the Herald has set aside wholly for school news. Each class has a reporter to represent it and to furnish the staff of editors, consisting of Misses Whitley and Grant, co-editors, and Edwin G. Schwarz, editor-in-chief, with all favorable news.

Mr. Jacobs made a nice lecture concerning flowers, and in this talk he suggested a very good plan by which the students were to bring flowers and have them placed in the study hall and class rooms. A student from each class was assigned the duty of caring for these flowers.

The Palestine High School Debating Society held its regular semi-monthly meeting with their debate Friday, March 18th. The question debated was: "Resolved, That a limited monarchy is a better form of government than a republic." The affirmative was strongly upheld by Edwin G. Schwarz, leader, and Virgil Ballew; the negative very favorably by Roderick Allen, leader, and Lionel Heffer. Mr. Jacobs, acting as judge, rendered a decision in favor of the affirmative.

The classes all held their regular meetings this week. At the meeting of the senior class the carnation was decided upon as the class flower, and a committee was appointed to select a motto. The seniors received their class pins, and are very much pleased with them. All the classes had their pictures taken the past week, and the proofs have been received.

We desire to thank Miss Bessie Grimes through the columns of this paper for the lovely book which she presented to the High School library.

A large number of organizations and societies have been organized this week; among them stand out prominently an orchestra, composed of six pieces, and a Glee Club. Here's to the success of them all, as they are such organizations as make school life a pleasure.
